To our Friends in the Country.

The strikes which THE NEWS has made in circulation, especially in the country, within the last two months, encourage us to redouble our efforts to make it such a paper as everybody wants to read, and a visitor which shall be welcomed in every household in the State. There is no good reason why a live Charleston newspaper, which keeps pace with the progress and spirit of the day, and is published at a price which places it within the reach of all, should not, with proper mail facilities, attain a circulation of Thirty Thousand copies; and we can promise that no exertions or enterprise shall be wanting on our part to make the regular edition of this journal approximate to that figure.

As a peculiarly attractive inducement to the planters of the State to become subscribers to THE NEWS before the expiration of the present year, we have arranged with Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, the publishers of the "Rural Carolinian," to supply that new and superb agricultural magazine, together with THE NEWS, at the following very low rates:

THE DAILY NEWS, at $10 per annum, in advance, for six dollars and fifty cents.
THE WEEKLY NEWS, at $10 per annum, in advance, for four dollars.
Subscriptions to the two publications may be sent either to the proprietors of THE NEWS, or to the proprietors of the "Rural Carolinian." But parties desiring to avail themselves of this offer must do so before the first of January next, as the arrangement will not be extended beyond that period.

When these rates are contrasted with those of the Charleston papers before the war, when the yearly price of a daily was ten dollars, and of a tri-weekly five dollars, in gold, or its equivalent, we think we may fairly claim that THE NEWS has labored to some purpose in the diffusion of intelligence among the people at prices suited to the changed aspect of the times.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Samuel T. Polner, editor of the Spartanburg Gazette, is in the city.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Brudersleichenband will give their first entertainment of the season to-night. It will doubtless be a most pleasant affair.

THE CHEAPEST YET.—THE NEWS Job Office is now printing bill-heads in the best style and on the paper, at $250 per thousand. Merchants, think of it!

RUMORED RESIGNATION.—It is rumored that one of the Aldermen is so thoroughly disgusted with the recent action of Council that he will not serve in that body any longer, but will send in his resignation at an early day.

MESSRS. STENHOUSE & Co., of our city, who have a branch of their house in Savannah, have just received and are now refitting their store at that place.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the City Council was held last night. A full report of the proceedings, which were very interesting, will appear on our fourth page.

MAGISTRATE BUNCH'S CASE.—The investigation of the charges against Magistrate Bunch were resumed and concluded yesterday before Magistrate Kanapaux and DeLorge. The decision, which has not been made public, of the commission, will be sent to the Governor for his approval.

CROWDED.—The press of advertising compels us to defer communication on other matters of considerable interest. But THE NEWS advertisements are always interesting reading matter, from their freshness and the amount of information they convey to the public. The rush of advertising is also a healthy and encouraging sign, as showing unmistakably the commencement of a brisk fall trade.

DEAF, DUMB AND BLIND ASYLUM.—The Columbia Phoenix understands that Governor Scott has decided upon the resumption of studies in the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum at as early a period as possible, and that the following appointments have been made: Superintendent, Mr. J. M. Hughton; Matron, Mrs. Ann R. Negley; School for Mutes, Mrs. W. B. North, principal; Mrs. Jane J. Rogers, assistant; School for the Blind, W. B. North, assistant teacher and teacher of music.

RARE ATTRACTIONS FOR THE LADIES.—Messrs. J. R. Read & Co. have just opened their fall and winter stock, comprising a splendid array of dress goods, laces and embroideries, gloves, hosiery and fancy goods. They have a great variety of the latest novelties in cloaks and shawls, which being either of their own importation or of their own manufacture, are offered at the lowest figures. For further particulars see their advertisement in another column, or better still, pay a visit of inspection to their fine establishment, in King street, opposite Hasel street.

ACCIDENT TO JUDGE CARPENTER.—On last Saturday morning Judge B. B. Carpenter met with an accident in New York. While stepping off a train, a freight car of another train passing slowly by, struck him on the shoulder, fortunately inflicting only a slight bruise. The Judge was seen walking about a few minutes after the occurrence, and when asked about it, said that the shoulder was only a little sore, and he regretted that the accident had occurred, because it prevented him from going to Orangeburg, where he had to open court on Monday. It is expected that the Judge will be here in a day or two.

UNITED STATES COURT.—Hon. GEORGE S. BRYAN, Judge, presiding. The District Court met at 11 o'clock yesterday.

In the cases of N. A. Greene and W. B. Bell, or Laurens, the Judge approved the appointment of S. Young as assignee.

In the cases of E. W. Byrum, J. L. Dawson and Andrew Smith, of Anderson, the Judge approved the appointment of Joseph C. Whitfield as assignee.

In the case of James Seigler, of Lexington, the Judge approved the appointment of G. C. Hall-wanger as assignee.

GERMAN SOCIETY OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—On Tuesday last a meeting of a number of our oldest German citizens was held to form a German society, similar to those which exist in prominent cities of America, for the purpose of relief and assistance for the German immigrant and the establishment of an employment office, and correspondence with sister societies in America and Germany. The following gentlemen were elected officers: President, John A. Wagner; First Vice-President, John H. Burkamp; Second Vice-President, John M. O'Brien; Treasurer, William Brunjes; Secretary, John D. Zerk; Directors, E. H. Stelling, A. Stemmermann, A. Bischoff, John O. O'Brien, Agent, M. H. Kappelmann.

THE THEATRE.—But three more nights remain of the engagement of the well organized stock company, which has opened the Charleston amusement season in so creditable a manner. The audiences, we are glad to say, have generally been good, and the acting, if not faultless, has always been of a character that we feel justified in commending to our sister Southern communities before whom the company may have a chance to appear. Last night "All that Gilters is Not Gold" was presented in very good style. "Still Waters Run Deep" is down on the bills for to-night. Miss Kate Raymond takes a benefit to-morrow evening, when she will appear in the favorite play of "The French Spy."

THE STRIKE OF THE TAILORS.

In this city there are about a hundred journeymen tailors, nearly all of them colored. They have a protective Union, similar to the Longshoremen's Union, which caused the strike on the wharves a few days ago, and has done so much harm—in the name of justice to the working men—to the white and colored tailors of Charleston. At the rates of wages in force, the best hands amongst journeymen tailors could make from eighteen to twenty-four dollars a week. The tailors, however, were of the opinion that they should have higher wages, and on last Monday week the Union notified the merchant tailors that they must pay more or submit to a strike of their workmen. The advance asked for amounted to from twenty-five to thirty-three per cent. on the old prices. As the merchants could not consent to go as far as this, the hands "struck" on Monday morning.

The merchant tailors were anxious to do all that they could to satisfy the journeymen, and after a free consultation agreed upon the following scale of prices, which was communicated to the strikers on Tuesday:

At a meeting of the merchant tailors of this city, held on the 11th instant, the following scale of prices was adopted by them and will be adhered to:

Fine cloth or beaver overcoats, double breasted.....$10 00
Fine cloth or beaver overcoats, single breasted..... 9 00
Tweed, melton, or ordinary cassimere overcoats..... 8 00
Tweed, melton, or ordinary cassimere overcoats, double breasted..... 7 00
Fine cloth frock or dress coats, double breasted..... 7 50
Fine cloth frock or dress coats, single breasted..... 7 00
Fine cloth or beaver suits, all kinds of mixed cuttings..... 6 00
All ordinary suits, same material as business suits..... 5 00
Skeleton coats..... 4 00
Alpaca suits..... 3 00
Fancy black or colored suits..... 2 50
Double breasted vests..... 2 50
Half double breasted or single breasted..... 1 75
Men's jackets..... 8 00
Youth's jackets from..... $2 50 to 3 50
Youth's suits from..... $1 00 to 1 50
Youth's pants and vests from..... $2 50 to 3 50
Capens from..... 75
Leggings, full length..... 1 00
Short gaiters..... 1 00
No extra allowed on pants; extra allowed for silk from..... $1 00 to 1 50
It is proper to say that in the foregoing list an addition has been made in every instance to the old prices, and that we are assured that at these prices good workmen can earn from $25 to $30 a week.

When the strikers, who are about seventy-five in number, learned the decision of the merchant tailors, many of them were anxious to go to work at once. They saw that the price offered them was a fair day's wages for a fair day's work. One of them told his old employer, with tears in his eyes, that the board—the Executive Committee, we presume, of the Union—was the greatest curse he had ever known. The journeymen, however, had not the courage to break with the Union, and to last night no decision had been come to. The Board and the Union were in session both day and night, but all that the journeymen gained so far is the loss of several days' work and pay.

The merchant tailors are anxious, we are sure, to give the journeymen all that they can justly demand. They have raised the prices for work without hesitation; but they will not go a step further. Indeed, they cannot afford to do so. Journeymen can be hired elsewhere at about the prices offered to the Charleston tailors, and unless the strikers return to their work, the merchant tailors must fill their places. They cannot allow work to stand still, and customers to be turned away, because the Union demands more than they can afford to give; and we believe that it is their intention, if the strike continues, to send to New York at once for forty or fifty journeymen.

We have at heart the interests of the workmen, and desire that they may be well paid for all their work. But capital, as well as labor, has its rights, and the workmen who combine together to exact unreasonable terms, force the employers to combine for their own protection. We hope that this second strike will soon come to an end.

RESIGNATION OF DEMOCRATIC POLICEMEN.—Yesterday Messrs. James Sergeant, P. Sherman and H. R. Wicket, Democratic members of the police force, tendered their resignations, which were accepted.

We learn that one of the negro roundsmen entered charges against a policeman because he did not salute him, but afterward withdrew them.

THE PORT ROYAL RAILROAD.—The most definite information about this road that we have yet seen is contained in the following extract from the proceedings of a meeting of the City Council of Augusta, held for the purpose of hearing addresses from the supporters of the Augusta and Hartwell Railroad:

Mr. Brown, representing the Port Royal Railroad, stated that he represented the New York capital which had been invited to this enterprise. This capital was for the purpose of constructing the Southern Pacific Railroad and other roads, of which the Port Royal Railroad was a link, and also a certain European steamship line. He related, in this connection, Augusta as a great railroad center of the South, and said that few people estimated the value of the latter road, and gave, in brief, his view of its importance.

Mr. John Davidson made a few remarks also on the subject, and was followed by Mr. Chapman, also of the Port Royal Railroad, who stated that he expected to have the first train of this road running order within ninety days. It is also the intention of the company to establish a line of steamships to Europe.
